STRENGTHEN CASE AGAINST NORRIS

Raleigh Police Locate Boy, Who Will Give Important Evidence.

I. O. O. F. ENCAMPMENT ENDS

New Officers Elected-Location for Y. M. C. A. Building at A. & M. College.

ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.!

Raleigh, N. C., Nugust 18.—The police have about located a boy here in Raleigh, whose name they are as yet withholding, who declares that very soon after the murder of J. B. Bissett is shown 40 have taken place in the woods east of Raleigh on Saturday night, he was driving a buggy toward town, and found a man he will identify as L. J. Norris, now accused of the murder, sitting by the road; that Norris asked him to give him a lift to town, and he agreed to do so, teiling him that he could bring him only as far as Blount Street, where he would stop at a stable. He says Norris got in, put a revolved, 32-calibre, down on the bed of the buggy, and that the man was perspiring very freely and seemed to have been running. The police believe this was Norris, and that his running and the aid he got in the buggy enabled him to be in town so soon after the murder was reported that it did not seem reasonable that he could have committed the murder. There is still no time set for the trial.

The North Carolina Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F. in session here the past two days, adjourned this afternoon to meet next year in Shelby. The recommendations of Grand Patriarch W. C. Allen, Waynesville, that a State degree team be organized for the purpose of visiting the local encampments and setting a standard of degree work for the local teams to strive to attain was adopted. Also it was determined to follow the suggestion of the grand patriarch and efficiency of the order in his territory.

There are thirty-five encampments in the State and the membership is upwards of 1,300. There have been 122 members added during the year.

The new officers are as follows: Grand Junior Warden, E. B. Stradley, Asheville; Grand Serier, G. T. Wood, Wilminston, Grand Representative, W. C. Allen, Waynesville.

Out at the A. and M. College the location for the new $40,000 y. M. C. A. building has been definitely settled.

out at the A. and M. College the location for the new $40,000 Y M. C. A. building has been definitely settled, It will be east of the new athletic park and, south of the dining hall, now being erected. The least nozsible time is to be consumed in getting the work under way.

A charter has been issued for the Round Knobb Park Company, of High Point: capital. $100,000 authorized and $25,000 subscribed, by J. M. Tomlinson and others, for real estate development.

John W. Clark, son of Chief Justice Walter Clark, who 's connected with the Erwin Cotton Mills, at Durham, was brought here to-day suffering from appendicits. He was taken to the home of Judge Clark, on Halifax Street, where it will be determined later shether it will be necessary to have in operation at this time.

Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Rural Retreat, Va., August 16.—Friday night a party of distinguished educators and State officials arrived at Rural Retreat from a seventy-sixmile drive through Bland county, where they delivered addresses before educational meetings at Mechanics-burg, Bland Courthouse and Ceres. In the party were Dr. Ennion G. Williams, State Health Commissioner; Professor J. H. Blinford, of the Co-operative Education Association, and Professors J. P. McConnell and J. R. Hunter, of Emory and Henry College.

Professor McConnell, recognized as the educational leader of the Southwest, acted as spokesman for the party. He was especially glad that the State Health Commissioner was one of the party, and he declared that the addresses of Dr. Williams will domuch good in Bland. He also reported that Professor Binford had organized School Improvement Leagues at Mechanicsburg and Bland Control
